Day-1	Easy peasy Cartooning
-------	-----------------------

CONTENT- DAY-1

As the saying goes there is no Good line or a bad line in Art, one may always improvise on the best drawing techniques over time and practice, but if a student-artist can understand how easy it is to cartoon, they can always do wonders by taking it forward, in this introductory cartooning class Students will be taught how easy it is to cartoon if you know very few tricks, the students will be able to create at least six to eight cartoons using same lines same features with little variations.

It is a very entertaining and fun activity for student artists.

Activity: Students will complete the activity in the Time In their Art Book. Design six to eight cartoons using the same shapes and lines with little variations.
